

WEDNESDAY EVENING CONCERTS

Sponsored by the
Friendship Heights Village Council

Concerts will be held from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. in Huntley Hall in the Friendship Heights Village Center. As a courtesy to our performers please turn off any cell phones or electronic devices. If you arrive after the concert has begun, please wait for a break in the performance before entering the auditorium.

Wednesday, Nov. 5—*Stephan Hom and Karla Chisholm—Vocallist Karla Chisholm debuted at the Monteaux Jazz Festival, and has performed across the U.S. and around the world. Steven Hom has been playing guitar since age 12 and has had a 30-year career as an antitrust, securities and nuclear energy litigation attorney. The program will be standards from the Great American Songbook, with pieces from George and Ira Gershwin.

Wednesday, Nov. 12—*Eric Byrd Trio—Pianist/vocalist Eric Byrd has appeared with Wynton Marsalis, Mike Stern, Keter Betts, Paul Carr, Buck Hill, Ethel Ennis, Marlena Shaw, Charlie Byrd and Ernie Andrews, just to name a few. He is the primary composer for the Eric Byrd Trio, which features Bhgwan Khalasa on acoustic bass and Alphonso M. Young on drums. The trio plays traditional jazz while providing an energetic and modern approach to standards and original compositions. With several studio albums released, the Trio has enjoyed immense popularity and recognition from fans around the world. Live performances have included appearances at Blues Alley, the John F. Kennedy Center for Performing Arts, Twins and Bohemian Caverns.

Wednesday, Nov. 19—*Tales in the Village: Ellouise Schoettler presents The Hello Girls—Drawing on their words, Ellouise Schottler has written and performs a story of the brave and “plucky” American women who served in France in the Signal Corps during World War I. I am particularly proud to be telling the “little known” story of these “gutsy” women who stepped up to serve their county. After the War ended they returned home from France to discover they faced another battle on the “home front” when the US Army denied them their Honorable Discharges and Veterans Rights.

Wednesday, Nov. 26—NO CONCERT

